Executive Proclamation
Office of the Governor

Whereas, Sergeant First Class Charles E. Bacon's dedication to service has made him a valuable asset to this state and country; and,

Whereas, We have very few occasions to recognize the patriotic individuals for their service to this state and country; and,

Whereas, Sergeant First Class Bacon devoted more than 35 years of his life to the service of this state and country as a logician, artilleryman and personnel NCO in the Army National Guard, including service in Iraq during Operation Iraqi Freedom II; and,

Whereas, His loyalty and leadership have made him a cornerstone in the Armed Forces of this country; and,

Whereas, Sergeant First Class Bacon continues to give of himself; and,

Whereas, It is fitting and proper as Governor to commend Sergeant First Class Charles E. Bacon for more than 35 years of dedicated and outstanding service to this state and country:

Now, Therefore, I, M. Michael Rounds, Governor of the state of South Dakota, do hereby proclaim May 15, 2007, as in South Dakota, and I join with his family and friends in wishing him well in his retirement and thanking him for his service to the state of South Dakota and to the United States.

In Witness Whereof, I have hereunto set my hand and caused to be affixed the Great Seal of the state of South Dakota, in Pierre, the Capital City, this Twenty-sixth Day of April in the Year of Our Lord, Two Thousand and Seven.

M. Michael Rounds, Governor

Attest:

Chris Nelson, Secretary of State
